1st Grade ‘I Can’ Statements 2013-14

Language:
I can print upper and lower case letters.
I can identify nouns, verbs, and adjectives.
I can capitalize proper nouns.
I can produce a full sentence.
I can consistently use correct end punctuation.
I can spell and read words in word families.
I can spell and read high frequency words.
I can spell unknown words phonically.
I can use commas in dates and lists.

Reading:
I can tell the difference between fiction and non-fiction.
I can read on grade level.
I can know character, setting and plot of a story.
I can retell a story with details.
I can use strategies to solve unknown words.
I can read grade level sight words.
I can recognize short, long vowel sounds.
Know all letters and sounds.

Learning Habits and Citizenship:

Know all letters and sounds.

I can complete and return homework.

I can show respect and fairness towards others.

I can follow classroom guidelines.

Math:

I can read, write and count to 20.

I can add within 10, 20.

I can subtract from 10, 20.

I can count and write to 120.

I can compare numbers using <, >, =.

I can understand place value: 10s and 1s.

I can add two digit numbers.

I can add two digit numbers with regrouping.

I can identify one more, one less, 10 more, 10 less.

I can subtract two digit numbers.

I can tell time to hour and half hour.

I can determine missing number in addition or subtraction problem.

I can measure objects using non-standard measurement.

I can recognize 2D and 3D shapes.

I can identify fractions \(\frac{1}{2}, \frac{1}{4}\).

I can read and use a graph.